WHAT ABOUT the SALES TAX in Carmel, Brother you got it, you got it ------ and why not? The TOWN lives on and FOR TOURISTS--it's officially and as a city tax collector, small, but it costs money to provide what we offer---- the CITY COUNCIL is in a squeeze what with employees and materiels costing more ------ the money is needed NOW, Business taxes can't be raised until next year, if then, if assessments are raised they would be out of line with the rest of the state ------and a sales tax would hurt more people LESS ------GUNNAR NORBERG'S suggestion that Sales Tax forms be CARBON COPIES of State forms and filed monthly or quarterly according to present custom, IS GOOD. ATTEND City Council MEETING Aug.28.....One of the NIFTIEST CARS around is the JAGUAR roadster belonging to SPIKE And GWENN GRAHAM, a couple of Nifties themselves ..... THINGS WERE HOPPING Thursday nite last week at Big and Little BOB'S Carmel Valley Country CLUB when the Monterey Peninsula BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S Club met for a get-together. A fine hard working group, among the Carmel members, Mary ASKEW, Ellen LOMMELL, Laura Belle NICHOLSON, Helen SMALL, Beatrice TORRES, June Gustafson TURNER and Mary Elizabeth THOMSEN of Pebble Beach ..... HATE to see TOM CASEY leave the Navy GENERAL LINE School. Made lots of FRIENDS and has been an asset to all our Communities; leaves for the FAR EAST in September .....One of the LOVELIES in town, DORCTHY CARMALT, wife of CHURCHILL CARMALT co-owner of Plaza Fuel ..... You've heard of Autos and BUSSES running away but the poor GREYHOUND BUSSES in Monterey haven't any place to run away from; they are looking for a home come September First..... One of Monterey's GRAND OLD MEN, E.B. GROSS wants to rent them his location where the Safeway store used to be, but the PLANNING COMMISSION of which E.B. is a MEMBER says "no"------It's not zoned for that. The present Greyhound place is rented Sept. One to IVIN MERRILL For his OLDSMOBILE showroom and service; which is good, (adv) and used car business because he had to vacate his own location. Anybody want a lot of GREYHOUNDS around? Maybe JACK GIESON, Realtor and good friend can find ALEX VICTOR a spot in Monterey for the Greyhounds. That would be a lot better than ELEPHANTS, wouldn't it ALEXIS? ---------- HERE TELL all of you guys and gals with $2.50 can be invited to one of the real SHOWPLACES around here come September 12 ---------- MRS HENRY POTTER RUSSELL'S Ranch in upper Carmel Valley and the OCCASSION is the GUIDE DOG TOUR FOR THE BLIND. They will take in a number of Carmel Valley places but don't miss the RUSSELL PLACE ---------- she was a CROCKER, you know .....TUESDAY AUGUST 21, at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club MRS W.A. PEGGY SAYS

Such fun activities at Rancho Del Monte Country Club every day a clear azure day filled with golden sunshine . . . we're completely away from the fog belt so if you're tired of dull, dreary days you'll love one of those lucious sun tans acquired at our blue lake pool. You can bask in the sun all day and enjoy a delicious luncheon served on the terrace beneath the red and white striped umbrellas.

Saturday night is the big party night. First cocktails in our lovely lanai bar room . . . and then the BARBECUE. Our big, lush steaks barbecued on the outdoor grill are really dreamy . . . or maybe you'd like our succulent chicken, or the crunchy brown spareribs.

After this we dance . . . and if you want to hear good jazz . . . you should hear Barbara at the piano. Her music really makes your toes twinkle.

On Sunday there'll be a lot of activity, too . . . at 2:30 an interesting tennis exhibition arranged by John Gardiner.

At 5:30 Sunday afternoon a weinie roast for the small fry. And then on Sunday evening we're going to show some beautiful colored movies.

WE'RE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC AFTER FIVE O'CLOCK. DO COME AND SEE US AND HAVE FUN.

For membership information for fun during the day, do inquire.

How to make good telephone service even better....

Long Distance service is faster when you call by number

You'll find your Long Distance Operator can put your call through much quicker if you give her the out-of-town number you want . . . rather than just the name and address. That way, you see, you won't have to wait for her to get the number from "Information" in the town you're calling. So why not start a Long Distance list . . . by jotting down the number when the operator reports it to you.

look 'em up—jot 'em down—then call

You know, it's awfully easy to get telephone numbers "turned around" in your head. So to get the right number, it's a good idea to look it up in the telephone book . . . jot it down on a slip of paper . . . then make your call.

PREPARING BOOK ON RETIREMENT

Gathering information here this week about why persons have chosen Carmel and the Monterey Peninsula as a place to retire was Mr. Fessenden S. Blanchard, a marketing consultant from New York City whose book on retirement will be published next year by Dodd Mead .

The Peninsula will definitely be included, Mr. Blanchard reported, in the book which will also discuss about 75 other places from the point of view of retirement. For each place data will be presented on climate, types of residents, cultural and recreational opportunities, part-time work possibilities, attractiveness of topography, activities of interest, cost-of-living etc.

Mr. Blanchard, who is the author of several cruising guides, was particularly interested in finding out which of these considerations were especially important to Peninsulites in choosing a place for retirement. He invited comments on any of these matters to be sent to him at 14 Ardsley Road, Scarsdale, N. Y.

Particular attention will be given in his book, according to Mr. Blanchard, to types of people living in a community--artists, business men, professional and armed service people--to their places of origin, the number of other retired people living in a place, etc.

A graduate of Harvard with the class of 1910, Mr. Blanchard has already queried by mail graduates of several Western and Eastern universities of the classes of 1900, '05 and '10. He solicited information, for instance, on the transition to retired life. Among his replies was this comment from a San Francisco resident: Los Angeles is ideal for retirement because there the transition from life to death is imperceptible.

POLICE CALL

By PARKER KIMBALL

Complained that neighboring house rented by man who did writing at night in upstairs room, using large florescent light which shined into their bedroom so complainants could not sleep. Between barking dogs and writers, Carmel Sleepers might as well toss in their pillows--

Phoned to report prowler in yard. Sgt. Wermuth sent to investigate, discovered two large cats walking around. No Peeping Toms---- just Toms.

Reported neighbors indulging in loud and noisy songfest. Could not give his address since had just moved in, didn't know way around well enough. Added however that prowl car would be able to hear noise block away. Apparently such was case, since police card reports the quietus put on gay party shortly after.

Found three small boys with "Buck Rogers" gun and two dead squirrels following complaint of boys with guns. Squirrels, however, turned out to be dead and also ripe. Chief Klaumann held nose, told kids to put their disintegrater rays away, disposed of the two corpses.

Sign on police officer's cap hanging in CPD: For Sale: $3.00, Size 7 3/8. See Ellis for low down payment and easy terms.

Special Services Dept: Man came in from L.A. looking for place to stay. Expected to be drafted in about four months. Thought he would like to stay in Carmel. Sympathetic officers looked through local newspaper classified ads, found job open at local resort, made him feel at home until resort's station wagon called for him.

On the Other Hand: Received report of poorly dressed man begging or soliciting for work, red hair in need of cutting. Picked up subject, escorted him to city limits. Because his hair needed cutting? Must have been something else....

Troglodytes: Smoke curling mysteriously from direction of beach brought Officer Weeks investigating. Found two young cave dwellers peering from retreat dug in bank. Ordered forth by Officer Weeks, disclaimed handiwork but advised "you ain't seen nothin' yet. "Led to another hole, large enough only for small boy, Officer Weeks looked in found cave size of automobile. After dispossessing kids of cave; officer made report recommending cave be closed up as hazard. On second thought from the looks of the news, hold it open, we may want to move in any time.

S. F. LITTLE SYMPHONY NOTED SUCCESS IN SECOND CONCERT HERE

The Music Lovers of Carmel were enthralled with the return of the San Francisco Little Symphony. Even greater was the appreciation of this talented group of Musicians than at the first performance.

Not having attended the first concert of the Little Symphony, I was not prepared for the enjoyment realized by those who had attended the first concert. Upon reading the program and seeing such artists assembled from so many parts of the country, one was apt to feel it would be difficult for each individual to blend himself into the harmony required of a Symphony. This feeling was quickly subdued upon hearing the opening section Concerto for Orchestra in D Minor.

As the evening proceeded there was the feeling of being over-joyed with the unity and rapt attention accorded Mr. Gregory Millar, conductor. The surety of the Conductor was felt, not only through out his Musicians, but radiated into the much enthused audience.

The fine appreciation of the Conductor, for the feelings of the composers was most evident in the work of Franz Schubert, Richard Arnell and Serge Prokofieff. His command of the Classical Symphony Opus 25 was most gratifying and exhilarating.

The great ovation given the Little Symphony was rewards with two encores. This led to remarks such as; "exhilarating", "magnificent", let's move to Carmel where such fine presentations and encores are so generously given".

Thus was ended another one of Carmels fine evenings of music.

Excellent Response To Bloodmobile

A new high in cooperation was witnessed here last week, when the Bloodmobile came down on its monthly visit, and in 2 days had been given 678 pints by the trainees, the Carmel Red Cross office reported.

Last Thursday and Friday forty-five volunteers worked all day. They will be on hand again to give the civilian population of the Peninsula a chance to donate blood August 23, at the Monterey U.S.O. from 10 to 5:30. Please call the American Red Cross to make an appointment.

NAVY WIVES AID EQUESTRIAN TEAM

WHO IS IT?

A local businessman whose success can be measured in feet is Jim Rowe. For some years, ever since quitting a pre-law course at the University of Washington to go to work for a department store in Seattle, his business has been catering to the lowest part of humanity, vertically speaking -- the foot.

For the past two years since settling in Carmel, he has owned the Village Shoe Tree on Dolores between Sixth and Ocean Ave. Like many another he picked Carmel as the perfect fit for him and his family after making many visits to Carmel to see his sister, Mrs. Robert Spencer, of the House of Cards. Bob Spencer is his partner in the The Village Shoe Tree.

Jim passes along some interesting footnotes to the shoe business gathered through years of experience in booteries from here to Seattle.

For instance, the story that women wear shoes two sizes shy to make their feet look smaller is not true -- today anyway. Today's woman let's her foot spread comfortably, depending upon the design of the shoe to provide the flattering effect, and to hell with size. The idea now in other words, is to make the shoe fit the woman and her wardrobe and not vica versa.

On the other hand, occasionally a man will get the idea he is not a big-footed galoot and go to lengths to prove it. One chap, Jim recalls, came into Jim's shoe department in another store, sat his 6-feet-2 in a chair and ordered a 7 1/2 brogan. Jim's footrule told him the guy should take not less than a No. 12. But the guy kept arguing. After a strenuous session, he settled for an 8 EE which he managed to get into with a little loss of skin. "Fine. Perfect," said the guy. "But you can't wear that," protested Jim. "Oh, No? Have you a knife?" asked the guy. Jim produced one where upon the guy carefully split out the sides with four slits in each shoe, sighed with relief and walked out a satisfied customer.

The smallest woman's shoe Jim remembers fitting is a 1 1/2B (about a 7 " foot); The largest woman's shoe, a 12 D (an 11 1/2" foot).

In Jim's famous feet collection are some well known celebrities' including the midget Johnny, of Philip Morris fame (1 1/2 boys shoe), Charlie Chaplin (7 1/2 B), Shirley Temple (4 1/2)B, Mary Livingston, Heddy LaMarr (8 1/2).

One of his biggest sales came from Marion Davies who walked in and bought four pairs for

Bridge Luncheon
At Rancho
Del Monte

Mrs. Malcolm Woods recently entertained at Rancho Del Monte Country Club Carmel Valley with a bridge luncheon.

Mrs. Wood's guest list included Mesdames: Joseph Gledhill, J. A. Michela, Gilbert Campbell, V. S. Speck William Gargulio, Raymond G. Smith, W. C. Peterson, Arthur Clay, W. Mc-Graw, Fred Kane, James Handley, Kathyrn Lansdowne, C. L. Berkey, J. R. Finley, Ed Canfield, Kenneth White, A. D. Maury, E. H. Ewig, E. M. Seifert, Malcolm B. Woods.

"WHO IS IT?" (cont'd from page 8)

herself, three pair for Carmen Pantages, shoes for the late William Randolph Hearst's three daughter-in-laws, a pair or so for Canstance Talmadge. The bill came to $1100. Another woman once bought 33 pair at one time.

Aside from his family including two boys -- Dean, 10 and Don, 14 — Jim's hobbies are golf (he's played twice since coming to the Worlds Golf Capitol) and the several civic and fraternal organizations of which he is member: Carmel Rotary (vice pres.), Carmel Masonic Lodge, Huntington Park Elk's Lodge, Knights Templar (Los Angeles), Al Malaikah Temple, Shrine.

One last important footnote: The SPECTATOR pump is Carmel woman's favorite footwear. How that SPECTATOR gets around!

GERHART MUENCH CONCERT SLATED FOR AUG. 26 AT SUNSET SCHOOL

The Monterey County Symphony Association will present Gerhart Muench, distinguished pianist of the Big Sur, in a Sunday afternoon concert, August 26, at 3:30 p.m., in Carmel's Sunset Auditorium.

Ever since his concert last April which filled the Hill Theatre with an audience tha rose to its feet cheering, the Peninsula has hoped for another performance by Muench.

Born in Dresden, Germany, in 1907, Gerhart Muench studied the piano from the age of three under his father, a professor at the Dresden Conservatory. He graduated from the conservatory at the age of fifteen as a prize winning student. In 1924 his first composition to be played before the public was presented in Dresden by Paul Aaron in a cycle of modern music. Paul Hindemith in the same year selected a Muench composition from competitive entries for the Donau-Esching International Music Festival.

During his years in Germany he gave concerts in the majority of the great cities of Germany as well as in Paris, Zurich, Rome and Florence. In addition to the concert stage, private teaching and musical research in old manuscripts occupied him. Among his won compositions are two string quartets, a quintet, a number of art songs, piano concertos and an oratorio, which were unpublished due to the Naze opposition to modern composers.

Coming to the United States in 1947 Muench taught composition and theory at the Southern California School of Music and Art in Los Angeles. He has recently taken out citizenship in this country and is living now in the Big Sur, devoting himself to composing. Since coming to the United States, he has composed, in addition to the previously mentioned works, "Labyrinth" for harp, oboe, bass-clarinet and viola, a one-act opera, a quartet, a quintet and several compositions for the piano.

Tickets for his forthcoming concert may be purchased at Abinante's Music Store in Monterey, Coleman's Music Store in Pacific Grove, Graham's Music Store and the Wells' Music Shop in Carmel.

JUNIOR SPORTSMEN'S ASSOCIATION PLANNED

A Junior Sportsmen's Association, primarily for the instruction and guidance of Carmel youth in the proper handling of firearms, is an aim of the Carmel Associated Sportsmen, Inc. One phase of establishing a junior branch of the Sportsmen's Club will be presented by Richard Lamb, proprietor of Sports and Hobbies, at the Thursday, Aug. 23, meeting at Mission Ranch, at 8 P.M.

Lamb will discuss the National Rifle Association and the encouragement this national organization offers to the average boy who has a natural instinct to shoot a gun. All boys interested are invited to attend. Lamb will donate a landing net for the proceeds of the club. The art of flycasting, tying flies, conservation of fish and game and natural resources, and other aspects of hunting and fishing will in time be presented to the boys by qualified instructors.

VETS TOLD OF NEED FOR CARE OF DISCHARGE CERTIFICATES

There are still some veterans who have not realized the absolute necessity of taking proper care of their discharge certificate from the armed forces, according to Claude S. Estill, Veterans' Service Officer.

"In some cases the consequences of a careless attitude about a discharge certificate can border on tragedy," Mr. Estill said. As an example, he cited the case of a widow who was unable to obtain a $150 burial expense payment from the Government simply because her late husband, who had served in the armed forces in wartime, had not made accessible to her a single document which proved his veteran status.

A lost discharge certificate can never be replaced; the certificate which is issued in lieu of a lost discharge is of some value, but not the same as the real thing, according to Mr. Estill. Veterans who have not had their discharge recorded may do so by calling at the Recorder's Office, Courthouse, Salinas.

"Two Blind Mice" Opening Postponed

Postponement of the opening of the local production of the comedy hit, "Two Blind Mice", has just been announced by the Carmel Playhouse organization, headed by Edward G. ("Ted") Kuster. The play, orginally scheduled to open this week-end, will now begin its local run the following week-end, on Friday, August 24th, at the Sunset Auditorium. Postponement was necessitated by illness

The hilarious Broadway hit of two seasons ago, "Two Blind Mice" deals with the efforts of two elderly women to maintain a Federal government agency long after it had been abolished by order of Congress. The agency in the play is the Office of Seeds and Standards, and it has been functioning already four years after its abolition at the time when the play starts.

COCHRANES ENTERTAIN

Visiting the Edward W. Cochranes in their Hatton Field Mesa home are Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Finley of Bronson, Kansas, who will spend a week in Carmel. Mr. Finley is a boyhood friend of Mr. Cochrane, a former Kansan. Just left are other house-guests of the Cochranes, Mr and Mrs. Everett Marshall with their son, Robert, and daughter, Ann. Mr. Marshall was formerly world's heavyweight wrestling champion, and a close friend of Mr. Cochrane when the latter headed the Hearst newspapers, syndicate's sports department.
